

Towards a Person Centered Healthcare and Practice

A CauseHealth Conference on Philosophy, Persons and Value

In memory of Stephen Tyreman

PROGRAM

University College of Osteopathy, London
10 May 2019

MORNING SESSION – Keynotes

09:00 - 09:30	Registration
09:30 - 09:45	Welcome	Steven Vogel
09:45 - 10:00	What is the CauseHealth project?	Rani Lill Anjum
10:00 - 10:40	Nature, Experience and Purpose: Stephen Tyreman's philosophy of person-centered care	Michael Loughlin
10:40 - 11:10	Break
11:10 - 11:50	People are too Complicated for Simple Labels: Stephen Tyreman's influences on (my) osteopathic education, practice and research	Hilary Abbey
11:50 - 12:30	We are such stuff as life is made of, and our lived body is its tale	Anna Luise Kirkengen
12:30 - 13:30	Lunch

AFTERNOON SESSION – Plenary discussions with panels

13:30 - 14:30	Beyond positivism and toward a new philosophical foundation for person centered practice and healthcare Chair: Rani Lill Anjum and Elena Rocca	Panel: Roger Kerry (intr), Amanda Banton (intr), Tobias Lindstad, Steven Vogel, Michael Loughlin
14:30-15:00	Break
15:00 - 16:00	Overcoming reductionism and dualism for a genuinely whole-ist approach to health and illness Chair: Roger Kerry	Panel: Martin Collins (intr), Tim Oxbrow (intr), Karin Mohn Engebretsen, Anna Luise Kirkengen, Ralph Edwards, Penny Sawell
16:00 - 16:30	Break
16:30 - 17:30	Improving our understanding of personhood, function, capacity and agency for healthcare Chair: Steven Vogel	Panel: Peter Simpson (intr), Christine Price (intr), Fiona Hendry, Matt Low, Frank Vincent
17:30 - 17:40	Closing remarks	Rani Lill Anjum
17:40 - 18:00	The Stephen Tyreman Legacy Working Group	Steven Vogel

Contact: Maritza Ilich Mauseeth at causehealth@nmbu.no, Norwegian University of Life Sciences

Updated: 6 May 2019